

Judge Tomlinson gave the court members a handout with all of the bills filed with the General Assembly to date. No action taken.

Project Updates

- Only a few items remain to be completed in the Sheriff's office renovation and should be completed soon.
- The AC unit at the Hall of Justice should be completed soon; it still needs to be inspected.
- Additional roof work needs to be done at Kysoc. The state will pay for the repairs but we will need to get estimates from contractors.

No action taken.

National Guard Armory – Frankfort

A request has been made of 119 counties to provide a gallon of dirt for use at the National Guard Memorial. The dirt will be taken from the Butler Turpin Mansion at GBSRP as Percival Butler was Kentucky's first Adjutant General. No action taken.

QK4 Preliminary Report

The court reviewed the preliminary results of the I-71 feasibility study from Jefferson County to Boone County. The report did not address the bridges in Carroll County and there is a concern with the timeframe of the project. No action taken.

County Clerk – Budget Transfers

Magistrate Miller made a motion to approve the attached list of budget transfers for the County Clerk. Magistrate Bowling 2nd. All in favor. Motion carries.

County and State Road Report

- Hwy 47 bridge – culvert needs extending and widened in areas.
- Hwy 36 bridge/Sanders – replacement has been expedited.
- Dripping Springs bridge – qualifies for 80/20 replacement funding.
- Hwy 42 bridge – the next phase from Dow to Ghent may go to bid late next year.
- Shoulder areas damaged during the Hwy 36 bridge replacement will be bid for repair.

No action taken.

County Judge Comments

- EOP is the consultant firm for the college.
- The court needs to think about putting in fire plugs in the Prestonville area while the water lines are being upgraded.
- Michael Kozar, CCMH, presented a check for $100,000 payment on the loan from the County and thanked the court for their support. Judge Tomlinson recommended the county donate the payment back to the hospital, with half of the funds designated to the Physical Therapy unit and the other half to be used as needed. Magistrate Bates made a motion to approve the recommendation. Magistrate Bowling 2nd. All in favor. Motion carries.
